SBA's Disaster Declaration Makes Loans Available Due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19)

The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) is offering designated states and territories low-interest federal disaster loans for working capital to small businesses suffering substantial economic injury as a result of the Coronavirus (COVID-19).

Upon a request received from a state's or territory's Governor, SBA will issue under its own authority, as provided by the Coronavirus Preparedness and Response Supplement Appropriations Act that was recently signed by the President, an Economic Injury Disaster Loan declaration.

SBA's Disaster Assistance for Small Business

On March 27, 2020, Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act was signed-- a landmark $2 trillion stimulus package addressing the impact of COVID-19. The package includes substantial relief for small business, including:

Paycheck Protection Program

A $350 billion loan program for small businesses and nonprofits to maintain existing workforce and help pay for other expenses like rent, mortgage, and utilities.

Small Business Debt Relief

$17 billion for the Small Business Administration (SBA) to cover 6 months of payments for small businesses with existing SBA loans, including 7(a), Community Advantage, 504, and Microloan programs.

Economic Injury Disaster Loans & Grants

An additional $10 billion in funding for SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDL), with emergency grants of up to $10,000 to provide immediate relief for small business operating costs.

The CARES Act requires that SBA enact these programs with regulations within 15 days

Paycheck Protection Program

The Paycheck Protection Program is a $350 billion loan program that applies to:

- Small employers with 500 employees or fewer, as well as those that meet the current Small Business Administration (SBA) size standards
- Self-employed individuals and “gig economy” individuals; and
- Nonprofits, including 501(c)(3) organizations and 501(c)(19) veteran organizations, and tribal business concerns with under 500 employees.

Loan amount:

- The size of the loans equal 250% of an employer’s average monthly payroll, up to a maximum loan amount of $10 million.

Use of funds:

- Covered payroll costs include salary, wages, and payment of cash tips (up to an annual rate of pay of $100,000); employee group health care benefits, including insurance premiums; retirement contributions; and covered leave.
- Loans can also be used to pay interest payments on mortgage obligations, rent, utilities, and interest on other debt obligations previously incurred.

Economic Injury Disaster Loans and Grants

On March 6, the U.S. Congress passed a COVID-19 preparedness and response supplemental funding bill that designated COVID-19 as a disaster under the Small Business Administration (SBA) and provided $20 million to support the SBA's administration of loan subsidies to small businesses of up to $2 million per loan.

On March 27, Congress passed the CARES Act, adding $10 billion to the loan program and waiving or relaxing several loan eligibility requirements.

Economic Injury Disaster Loans and Grants

How much can I borrow?

Eligible entities may qualify for loans up to $2 million.

The interest rates for this disaster are:

- 3.75% for small businesses
- 2.75% for nonprofit organizations

Terms of the loans are decided on a case-by-case basis and on ability to repay, but they can have a maximum length of 30 years, and are based on a business' actual economic injury and financial needs.

Loans can be approved on the basis of a credit score; tax returns are no longer required.

Eligibility for these working capital loans are based on the size (must be a small business) and type of business and its financial resources. .
