

2026 SPRING STUDENT MEMBER SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION PACKET

At the heart of NCEDA's and the NCEDA Foundation's mission is professional development, and we know that supporting students is key to building the next generation of economic development leaders. Ongoing learning, exposure to best practices, and connections within the profession are essential for career growth – and the earlier students can engage, the stronger their foundation for success.

The NCEDA Foundation is proud to offer scholarships to NCEDA student members, designed to provide meaningful access to professional development opportunities. These scholarships help students explore the field, build skills, and connect with experienced practitioners, giving them a head start in understanding and contributing to North Carolina's economic development community. By supporting students now, we're investing in the future leaders, innovators, and changemakers of the state's economic development profession.

- Student Member Basic Economic Development Course Scholarship, which pays for tuition, plus reimbursement of all travel, lodging, meals, and ancillary expenses, to attend the one-week Basic Economic Development Course held annually at UNC Chapel Hill. Two scholarships will be offered.
Estimated Value: $1,600 (tuition + additional expenses)
- Student Member NCEDA Annual Conference Scholarship, which pays for conference registration, plus reimbursement of all travel, lodging, meals, and ancillary expenses, to attend NCEDA's 2026 Annual Conference, June 17-19, in Wilmington, NC. Two scholarships will be offered.
Estimated Value: $800 (registration + additional expenses)

SCHOLARSHIP DETAILS

Student Member Basic Economic Development Course Scholarship

This scholarship provides the full tuition and all other expenses associated with the Basic Economic Development Course offered at UNC Chapel Hill, a four-day program held each summer for two NCEDA student members. Accredited by the International Economic Development Council (IEDC), the Basic Course supports professionals in the early stages of their careers and is the first required course for those considering certification through the IEDC or the NC Certified Economic Developer program. Topics include economic development tools for attraction, expansion, marketing, finance, and management. Presenters include academics, site selection consultants and seasoned professionals in the economic development field. Course participants meet others from throughout the state and country, building invaluable contacts and forming lasting relationships. The 2026 BEDC is scheduled for July 27 –30 in Chapel Hill. Click HERE for more details.

NCEDA dispenses scholarship funds as a reimbursement pending proof of payment in the form of a direct receipt from UNC Chapel Hill and receipts for all travel, lodging, meals, and ancillary expenses. The lodging reimbursement rate may be no more than the group rate at the base hotel coordinated by the program.

2026 NCEDA FOUNDATION SPRING SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION PACKET

Student Member NCEDA Annual Conference Scholarship

This scholarship provides the registration fee, and all other expenses associated with NCEDA's 2026 Annual Conference for two NCEDA student members. Annual Conference attendees meet others from throughout the state and country, building invaluable contacts and forming lasting relationships. The 2026 Annual Conference will be held June 17-19 in Wilmington. Click HERE for more details.

NCEDA SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA AND SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS

NCEDA scholarships are intended to support professional and educational advancement by removing financial barriers to accessing professional development opportunities. The primary criteria for selection will be demonstrated financial need, with some focus on distressed areas in North Carolina, followed by a demonstrated strong desire for learning more about the profession to foster a successful career in economic development. A third element will be the presentation of the application itself. ALL INFORMATION SUBMITTED IS CONFIDENTIAL. The following information may help you in developing your application:

- Successful applicants will demonstrate a strong interest in learning more about economic development and pursuing a career in the field. Demonstrate convincingly your interest in a career path in the profession and how the program for which you are applying will help you pursue your career goals.
- Economic developers make their living making presentations. Consider this application exercise good practice. Is the information complete and easy to read? Is it well organized and attractively and creatively formatted? Most importantly, does it effectively tell your story? Supporting documentation or letters of recommendation are helpful.

Criteria

- Applicants must be student members of NCEDA for the duration of the program.
- Recipients must be committed to completing all coursework.
